Frequently Asked Questions:

- Is this program for anyone who is single?
Yes! It's open to anyone who's single, whether you're divorced, separated, widowed, or never-married. We even welcome those to attend who may be in a relationship but looking to support a loved one who would like to find a partner, as all sessions are filled with informative and practical information that can be shared later with your friends or family members.
- I am married but I have a friend or family member who's single. Can I attend some of these sessions and bring the information back to him/her?
Yes, absolutely! See FAQ answer above. It would be wonderful for you to gather and share helpful tips to support anyone you know who's single.
- Is this retreat for both men and women?
Yes, all genders welcome and encouraged! (Note: we usually have more female than male guests who register)
- Is there a fee to attend this retreat
There is no fee to participate in this retreat beyond your guest accommodations package. Most lectures and activities are included. However, there will be several options to sign up for additional experiences and individual appointments with Canyon Ranch experts in Life Management and other departments, and many other services you can pre-book prior to arrival or during your stay.
- Are the sessions on the program menu open to all guests at Canyon Ranch?
Yes. All sessions are open to any guest staying at Canyon Ranch, so you may have both retreat participants and non-retreat participants mixed in each session since most topics apply to a broad range of people.
- Is this program only for participants who are looking for marriage?
No. Our guests are interested in finding a partner for any type of relationship, from marriage, to companionship, and anything in between.
- How many days does the program last?
"Jumpstart" programming is scheduled for 3 ½ days (starting with a Welcome Reception at 5pm on May 22, and ending with an evening Fireside Chat with Rachel Greenwald on May 25 from 7:00pm - 8:30pm), so we recommend you arrive at least by 3pm on May 22, and depart on May 26 or later. Please extend your stay before and after these dates as long as you'd like: there is so much to explore and enjoy on the property!
- Does Rachel Greenwald schedule individual sessions at Canyon Ranch?

Unfortunately no, she is unable to see guests one-on-one at Canyon Ranch. However, her Private Fireside Chat will be a small group where you can bring all your questions. All lectures at the resort usually attract small groups, so you'll have plenty of opportunities to ask your questions to all our experts. Amy Hawthorne, co-instructor in the retreat and Director of Life Management at Canyon Ranch, is a phenomenal resource; Amy and her team do schedule private sessions to discuss any topic (appointments required, please book in advance).

- When should I book my spa appointments, and any other appointments I'd like to make with Canyon Ranch experts?

Please look at the Daily Schedule on the Canyon Ranch website 30 days prior to May 22. The schedule is found under "Plan Your Stay/Tucson-Pre-Stay-Guide/Personalize Your Experience/Daily Schedule". Then use the arrows next to the date to toggle to May 22, then click on the "pdf" icon on the right side of the page to view the full Daily Schedule. You can decide which sessions flagged as "FE" (Featured Event: "Jumpstart") you'd like to attend, then you can book other appointments (and make your dinner reservations) around those times. If there are any last-minute changes, you'll see those updates when you arrive and then you can adjust your other appointments accordingly.
